

MEIGS COUNTY TELEGRAPH.

POMEROY, O.

TUESDAY, APRIL 20.

We acknowledge favors from the regular line boats passing Pomerooy, and add to our list of obliging men, Mr. V. B. Horton, Jr., of the "Scioto."

The brilliant fête at Dr. Cornell's, near Chester, on Saturday night last, passed off with more than usual éclat. Notwithstanding the bad condition of the roads, and the unfavorable weather, the invited guests, Richelieu-like, knew "no such word as fail," and assembled at an early hour, with the full determination of "making it pay," and, from the merry peals of laughter, the sparkling, joyous eyes, the restless feet, and deep, heaving sigh at early parting, the proclamation, plainer than words can speak, was audibly announced that "liquidation was doubly liquidated." The host and hostess, and family, so nobly sustained their reputation for hospitality, that their most intimate guests concede to them many additional laurels to the well-merited ones obtained on former occasions.

On Sunday afternoon, Pomerooy was thrown into excitement by the announcement that a man by the name of Stone, who had charge of a coal boat belonging to the Mason City Coal Works, was missing, and it was supposed, from the fact that the boat was found tied up, that he had been murdered. Suspicion fell upon a man who had taken passage on the "Liberty" as she passed down. Several of our citizens followed the boat down and overtook her at Coalport, but we have not yet heard whether they secured the supposed criminal or not. It was found out, however, that the man was not murdered, but had been thrown from his boat by a cable which fastened it to the boat he was furnishing with coal, and that the crew on the steamboat tied the coal-boat up, and left a note with some person, stating the manner in which he lost his life. The body has not yet been recovered.

LARGE LAND SALE.—We invite attention to the extensive forced sale of lands, advertised in our columns by the Sheriff of Washington County, comprising tracts in the counties of Washington, Gallia, Morgan, Athens and Meigs. These lands, in the agency of Douglas Putnam, belong to the estate of Benjamin Day, of Boston, who died about thirty years ago, and now, by the consent of all parties, they are offered for sale for the first time. The tracts are to be sold in parcels, as appraised, to suit purchasers, and on very favorable terms. This is a rare opportunity for settlers to buy lands of the original Ohio Company's Purchase, which have so long remained, in a degree, uncultivated and unimproved.

A Sad Calamity.

The storm of Monday last, which swept over so large a region of country, prostrating fences and trees in many parts of the State, was particularly destructive on the river. The most serious effects of it, of which we have heard, was the sinking of the steamboat "Venture," near Gallipolis. This boat, as our readers are aware, was a regular packet between this place and Portsmouth. She was about rounding to at Gallipolis, when the gale in all its fury, struck and instantly capsized her, rolling her boilers overboard, and filling her with steam from the broken steam-pipe. In a moment she was a perfect wreck. To avoid the effects of the steam some twelve or more of the persons on board plunged into the raging water as their only hope of escape. But alas! eight of the number, unable to buffet the fury of the waves, perished. Several of these were from, and of this place—and their untimely end has thrown a gloom over our entire community. The following are the names of those who were drowned: Edward Sledbottom, Thomas Weeks, Frank Matthews, Reed Harding, Charles King, David Pritchard, Samuel Stafford and James Murphy, all of whom we learn, were on the deck at the time the boat turned.

There were several persons in the cabin, all of whom were saved. Among these we learn, were Mr. Pugh and his sister, of Chester, and Thos. Feiler, of Silver Run, in this County.

The boat we understand will be a total loss—the value of which we have not learned. There was no insurance on either. The citizens of Gallipolis did all that could be done for the rescue of the persons on board and for the comfort of those who were saved. The bodies of those drowned have not yet been recovered. How forcibly are we reminded that "in the midst of life we are in death."

P. S.—Since writing the above, it has been ascertained that the body of Mr. Matthews and two of the deck hands have been found.

Capt. Pennington, who had command of the boat, who was at the Clerk's desk at the time of the accident, owing to the unavoidable absence of Mr. Donnelly, the First Clerk—estimates the entire loss on the boat and cargo, at about $3,000. He desires to return his thanks to the citizens of Gallipolis for their activity in relieving the suffering.

Col. Beaton, of Missouri, died in Washington on the 11th inst. He was the last of the "stand-bys" of the middle generation of the 19th century. His last expressed desire was that Congress should take no official account of his demise.

Our "New Advertising" column has unusual fullness this week, and we have not space enough to notice separately the mercantile, mechanical and other advertisers. The following is the list:

NEWS ITEMS.

TWENTY YEARS SENTENCE OF A WOMAN.—Huldah Morrison, the wretch who set fire to the Ashabula County Infirmary, by the burning of which seven persons lost their lives, plead guilty to the indictment, and was sentenced by Judge Willard to the Penitentiary for twenty years. The "Sentinel" says:

This miserable creature is one of the most degraded and hardened of her sex. A few years since, she was married as a second wife to an Irishman in Ashabula, named Morrison, a countryman of hers, with whom she led a life of torment through several years, at the end of which he was relieved by death. She then opened a grog-shop, which was broken up as an intolerable nuisance, after which she went to the poor-house, where she behaved as badly as she well could, till she managed to set it on fire, and caused the death of seven of the inmates. She has since attempted to fire the jail, and now pleads guilty with all the bravado she can muster. Her sentence, of course, is for a full term under the law.

ASSASSINATION IN MACON COUNTY.—We learn that on last Saturday night, Mr. Jethro Walker, while sitting in a portico in front of his house, received a wound from a gun in the hands of some unknown person, from which he died instantly. The gun was loaded with small shot, all of which entered his face. Only one, however, penetrated the skull. We are sorry to say that his own son is suspected of having committed the deed, but we hope that subsequent disclosures may bring his innocence. He is a crack-brained sort of a fellow, and if guilty doubtless committed the deed in a fit of insanity.—Tuskegee (Ala.) Republican.

James T. Brady, the distinguished lawyer, gave a lecture in New York, on Thursday evening, on the legal disabilities of women. He advocated a relaxation of the divorce law, an increase of the privileges, personal and pecuniary, of married women, and an extension of the right of suffrage to single women. Why not married women also? Would Mr. Brady offer a premium on old maids?

It is stated that the largest room that ever was constructed is in which the tobacco stores are kept at the London Docks. The room is said to cover nearly six acres, being of course, under one roof. It is a curious circumstance that this enormous apartment should be devoted to an article of mere luxury.

The Richmond "South," in an article on the vagaries of the printer's devil, says that the following clause is to be found in the code of Virginia of 1818:—"Every person duly convicted of murder in the first degree, his or her widow, abettor and consoler, shall suffer death by hanging by the neck. Every person duly convicted of the crime of murder in the second degree, shall be sentenced to undergo a similar confinement for a period not less than five nor more than eighteen years!"

"The editor of 'Journal' was at prayers Monday morning."—Dispatch.

That's so, and he has been to prayers several mornings since, and would be pleased to see the editor of the "Dispatch" cut loose from his dissolute companions, and instead of hunting on Sunday devote the day to divine worship. We are certain his conscience, if he has any, would rest much easier by pursuing this course of life.—Gallipolis Journal.

MARIETTA, April 6.

The 70th anniversary of the settlement of Ohio was celebrated to-day. Hon. Thomas Ewing delivered the address. The only survivor of the party of forty-seven who arrived here in seventeen eighty-seven, was present. Also several who were born in the first block built at Marietta and Bolope, three of the oldest living white natives of Ohio, and a large number of descendants of revolutionary soldiers. Speeches were made by Gen. Goddard and others.

Ex-President Roberts writes from Monrovia, that the settlers were likely to be drawn into trouble with the natives, owing to the French system of collecting emigrants on the coast for the West India colonies. The chiefs had commenced kidnapping and waging war on each other, in order to obtain a supply of hands for export.

Mr. Thompson, of Washington County, Ohio, has a little daughter, who at the age of four years, weighed one hundred and fifty pounds. She is now four years and five months old, and weighs, as her parents suppose, one hundred and seventy pounds!

It is predicted by the London correspondent of the New York "Commercial Advertiser," that France and England will be at war in less than six months.
